CSUF | Alumni

The Golleher Alumni House offers several naming opportunities that not only honor your commitment but also ensure the ongoing maintenance and improvement of this historic venue. Hosting a wide array of alumni events throughout the year, the Golleher Alumni House is a central gathering place for Cal State Fullerton's alumni and campus community. Now available for public rental, the House sees increased use for private events, providing even more visibility to those who choose to underwrite these prestigious spaces. Your gift to support the naming of these spaces will leave a lasting legacy while enhancing the future of this iconic building.
