Titans Are Welcomed Back Home

Loyal Titan fans of all ages and backgrounds cheered Cal State Fullerton baseball throughout their 18th appearance at the College World Series. The team finished its season with a 39-24 record, and this is the third time in four years that seven or more Titans were taken in the MLB Draft.

Student Spotlight

Scott Steffel

Scott Steffel, a 23-year old CSUF student, caught the historic 600th home run ball of Angels slugger Albert Pujols and instead of sending it to an auction house, where the baseball could be sold for an estimated $100,000 or more, he returned it to the player – for a hug. (AP PHOTO)
