

@FULLERTON

CSUF | Alumni Newsletter

Featured News

V VISION & VISIONARIES

Call for Nominations: Vision & Visionaries (V&V)

V&V was established in 1994 as an event to recognize Cal State Fullerton's most distinguished alumni. Above all other university accolades, the V&V award is the highest honor that can be bestowed upon alumni of this university. We invite you to nominate CSUF alumni that are deserving of this recognition before the deadline on Oct. 26.

Read More

Alumni News

Alumna to Share Tales of Internships, Career Paths and 'The Late Show'

As a student Michneovich Bracco '95, juggled two internships, multiple responsibilities in many on-campus productions, and classes to obtain a B.A. theater arts. Today, she oversees the production and operation of the "The Late Show With Stephen Colbert."

Read More

Alumnus Develops App to Help Parents with Special Needs Kids

David Chamberlain '14, got the idea to create his own app after he graduated from CSUF's entrepreneurship program. The app provides the resources for a parent of a special-needs child to find appropriate schools, activities and healthcare.

Read More

Alumni proposes Keystone project to reduce homelessness in OC

David Gillanders '10, executive director of Pathways of Hope and faculty member of the Cal State Fullerton human services department, said he led the dialogue with city council members as well as with the community in regards to a "housing first" program in northern Orange County.

Read More

RECAP: Founding Titans Brunch & Convocation Ceremony

Valued founding members of our campus community (students, faculty and staff from 1957-1969), attended a Founding Titans brunch and were recognized as an honored group by President Fram Virjee during his convocation address.

View Photos

Read More

RECAP: Concert Under the Stars

The entire Cal State Fullerton community came out for a spectacular evening of fireworks and a blend of Mariachi and Soul music performed by students, both past and present, from the University's award-winning College of the Arts.

Read More

RECAP: Angels Hat Night

Thousands of past, present and future Titans filled the stands of Angel's Stadium of Anaheim as the Los Angeles Angels defeated the Oakland Athletics 8-5. Titans received the exclusive, customized Cal State Fullerton Angels baseball hat to wear during the game as CSUF facts flashed on the jumbo-tron.

View Photos

Titans in the Spotlight

Alumni Spotlight

Farnaz Esnaashari-Charmatz '14

Farnaz long imagined herself in a world of characters. She first crafted sculptures and animated animals in the classrooms of Cal State Fullerton's College of the Arts. Today, she's known as the creator and executive producer of Nickelodeon's popular adventure series "Shimmer and Shine."

Read More

Student Spotlight

Meghan Waymire

Meghan is a political science major and the chief governmental officer of Associated Students, Inc. at Cal State Fullerton. She is leading the initiative on "Political Palooza", a fair connecting students with candidates and encouraging Titans to get in-the-know and to register to vote.

Read More

Alumni Association Member Benefit

Access to All 23 CSU Libraries

Members can get a Titan Alumni Card and check out books from the Pollak Library. Present your card at other CSU libraries and receive check out privileges at that campus, too. Learn more about how you can use your alumni library benefits.

NOTE: Access to online journals and research data bases are currently only offered on site at CSU libraries. Remote access is not included in this membership benefit at this time. Not a member yet? Join today and save!

Read More

Campus News

- Faculty and Staff Members Enjoy the Perks of Club 57
- CSUF President Virjee offered welcoming remarks at the Annual Black Chamber of Orange County Banquet
- Fulbright Scholar to Headline Hispanic/ Latinx Heritage Month Reception
- City Management Fellows Gain Insights Into Local Government Work
- LGBTQ History Month Celebration to Feature Stories of Coming Out

More News

Calendar

Featured Event

Student Curator Shows the Secret Lives of Ceramics

This new exhibition at the Nicholas & Lee Begovich Gallery aims to bridge the gap between art and life. "Living With Clay: California Ceramics Collections" runs through Nov. 17 at Cal State Fullerton's Nicholas and Lee Begovich Gallery.

Read More

Thursday Oct. 18	Internship & Career Expo
Sunday Oct. 21	University Singers & Concert Choir
Thursday Oct. 25	CSUF Economic Forecast Conference
Sunday Oct. 28	Myth and Lore of Wolves
Friday Nov. 9	CSUF Ducks Night
Saturday Dec. 1	SAVE THE DATE: Homecoming

More Events

