CSUF Summer Kids Camps

Titans with families – summer kids camps filling up quick! From academic camps to active recreation, check out the different summer camp options available for kids of all ages at Cal State Fullerton. Kids can explore drawing, painting, musical theater, and 3D design through Art Camp. Alternatively, they can enhance their academic repertoire with coding camp, robotics, writing, and others.

Alumni Philanthropy

Thank You Titan Alumni

We want to express our gratitude to our Titan Alumni and greater Titan community for helping us create a wonderful Food & Fashion: Career Readiness Made Simple event last month. We served a great group of students, introduced them to valuable resources (CSUF Career Center, Tuffy Basic Needs, and WHW) and had one-on-one time helping our Titans prepare for the job search journey.

Titans in the Spotlight

Alumni Spotlight

Yumi Liang '18, Lorenzo Santos '17 and Vanessa Ganaden '18

These young alumni continue to inspire innovative change on and off campus.

“Once a Fellow, Always a Fellow,” is the mantra for these three Titan young alumni. As students at Cal State Fullerton, the three were named University Innovation Fellows and were charged with embedding innovation in the campus community. Today, they remain committed to supporting Titan innovation and bringing "design thinking" to everything they do.

Most recently, Liang, Ganaden and Santos were chosen from a pool of more than 1,800 high-achieving fellows across the globe to serve as event leaders at the annual UIF Silicon Valley Meetup. The trio welcomed the opportunity to share their innovation experiences with the crowd of 350 students and faculty from 96 higher education institutions in 15 countries. Congratulations Titans and way to Reach Higher!

Student Spotlight

Jasmine Garcia

“There are lots of possibilities, and you have to reach for them and not be afraid,” explains Cal State Fullerton sophomore and first-generation college student Jasmine Garcia. With that motivation in mind, Garcia applied and was selected as one of only ten 2019 Frederick Douglass Global Fellows.

She is the first CSUF student to receive the prestigious and highly-competitive scholarship that provides an intensive, four-week, three-credit, study abroad program in London this summer, with all expenses paid. Garcia was selected from a pool of more than 400 applicants across the nation.
