

CSUF Alumni Association

Latest Headlines

GO VOTE! A Voter Education Series

In preparation for the November general election, Cal State Fullerton's Office of Alumni Engagement is hosting a voter education series that will cover a variety of topics, from the importance of voting and voter security to understanding California propositions and more. All events are open to Titan alumni and friends of the university. Events in this series will be held via Zoom and Instagram Live.

Read More

---

Campus Initiates a New Approach to Celebrating Multiculturalism

The Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Programs at Cal State Fullerton is introducing a new approach to celebrating the diverse cultural groups on campus. One way to reach out was to form Titan Table Talks — one-and-a-half hour programs that allow Titans an opportunity to listen to speakers who represent the constituencies being celebrated, discuss issues these groups face, learn how these individuals sought to overcome this adversity, and address circumstances that various groups of people face on an ongoing basis.

Read More

Titans Explore Life's Possibilities With Alumni on Roadtrip Nation

Can a roadtrip in a big, bright green RV answer the age-old question: What should I do with my life? In the case of Cal State Fullerton students Genesis Garcia, Cesar Romero and Ranela Sunga, it certainly helped. In early 2020 prior to COVID, the three Titans traveled throughout Southern California in "Mac" the RV, talking with accomplished CSUF alumni about their career paths. This experience was facilitated by Roadtrip Nation, an organization dedicated to helping people find career and life fulfillment.

Read More

CSUF in the Top 5 Percent of 'Best Colleges in America'

Money magazine ranks Cal State Fullerton's transformative, affordable, and results-driven education among the top 5 percent of universities in its national list of "Best Colleges in America," rated by value. CSUF received additional recognition, to view the latest, continue reading below.

Read More

GEICO Alumni Discount

The CSUF Alumni Association has partnered with GEICO to save you even more on auto, homeowners, renters and boat insurance with a special CSUF discount. Call or click here to get a quote.

View More CSUF News

Titans in the Spotlight

Sigma Pi Fraternity announced that Larry Rovira '80 has been appointed to the Grand Council serving as Past Grand Sage. Rovira is a CSUF Alumni Association past president.

Read More

Gov. Gavin Newsom appointed Isaac Alferos, CSUF senior, to a two-year term on the California Student Aid Commission. This appointment gives Alferos a statewide platform for advocacy work in educational equity, higher education access, and financial assistance. Alferos, who applied for the position and began his new post this fall, will review and make policy relating to student financial aid as a student representative of the 15-member commission. The position also required state Senate confirmation.

Read More

Activities and Events

Oct.

5-28

Campus Sustainability Month

For the first time ever, partners from across the CSU are collaborating to host October Sustainability Month virtual events meant to educate, empower and activate students, faculty and staff to join the movement for environmental, social and racial justice and get out the vote this November.

Learn More

Oct.

8

The Security and Integrity of Voting

In this session attendees will learn about security and the integrity of voting. Speaker, James Simmons, former CEO of voting technology company Everyone Counts, will discuss the reality of mail-in voting and will look into how foreign identities interfere with elections.

Learn More

Oct.

13

Ballot Propositions 101: Get to Know Your Propositions and Potential Impact

Dr. Sarah Hill, Associate Professor of Political Science & Vice-Chair for the Division of Politics, Administrative, and Justice, will explain each California State proposition included in this year's ballot. Find out exactly what a yes or no vote will mean for each proposition. With propositions around affirmative action to rent control, voters like yourself could significantly impact California residents.

Learn More

Oct.

15

Estate Planning “Musts” During the Pandemic: Wills, Trusts, and Creating Peace of Mind!

No one wants to think about getting seriously ill or dying, but these are scenarios we must prepare for to protect ourselves, our loved ones, and our money, especially during the pandemic. This webinar will show you step by step how to legally formalize your wishes and ensure they will be followed, bringing you total protection and peace of mind!

Learn More

Oct.

15

CSUF Alumni Association Book Club: Book #2

Titans, join us for our virtual book club and connect with fellow Cal State Fullerton alumni, faculty, and staff. For the second book we will be reading this year's CSUF common read book, 'The Book of Unknown Americans,' by Cristina Henríquez. Participation is free!

Learn More

Oct.

23

Civility First!

Dr. Tara Suwinyattichaiorn, a tenure-track CSUF Professor and researcher in the areas of interpersonal communication, intercultural communication, public speaking, social media, and advanced research methods will provide attendees tools on how to come together with people of opposing views.

Learn More

Oct.

24

Oktoberfest Virtual Beer Tasting

CSUF has partnered with alumni-owned Bootleggers Brewery to bring our Titan Community an exclusive Oktoberfest beer tasting experience. The tasting event will be lead by a Bootleggers Master Brewer and will include an exclusive virtual private tour of the Bootleggers Brewery production facility.

Learn More

---

View CSUF Calendar

CSUF Alumni Association
Privacy Policy | Email Preferences

