Children's Books Teach Literacy and Preserve Vietnamese Culture, Language

Professor for the College of Education and Director of CSUF's National Resource Center for Asian Languages Natalie Tran helped published 13 new illustrated Vietnamese children's books. This effort was part of the center's Community Literacy Project to promote and preserve Vietnamese native language and culture. One of the books in particular, "Bữa Tiệc Ở Green Valley" (Birthday Party in Green Valley), written by Anh NguyễnLê, includes illustrations by alumna Nicole Johnson '20.
