

CSUF Alumni Association

Latest Headlines

Happy Holidays Titan Family!

2020 has been one unprecedented year full of highs, lows, and unknowns. Our Titan family pivoted in light of the global pandemic, and we saw our Titans lead food distributions, produce hand sanitizer, help small businesses survive, and work on the front lines as medical professionals. We are grateful to all of you for making our virtual programs successful and for your generous support of student emergency funds. Have a safe and wonderful holiday season, Titans!

Latest News

Celebrate the University's Impact

Discover how Cal State Fullerton made a difference in the lives of students, faculty, staff, alumni and community members in the past year. The 2019-20 Annual Report is available online and celebrates the University's milestones and progress while honoring supporters who are integral to its success and future. To request a printed copy of the report, please contact Alumni Engagement at alumniengagement@fullerton.edu.

Read More

University Launches Institute of Black Intellectual Innovation

Natalie Graham, associate professor of African American studies, will be leading the Institute of Black Intellectual Innovation which will institutionalize the support and inclusion of Black people and Black culture, through anti-racist research, creative arts and community-based programming and events.

Read More

CSUF Athletics Update

Titan basketball will be a little different this season with men's and women's basketball teams playing without fans in the stands. You can still show support and stream all the games! CSUF Men's basketball is scheduled to begin Big West Conference play on Dec. 27-28 against CSUN. The CSUF Women's basketball has been taking the court since November but has lost both non-conference opponents, UCLA and UNLV. Women's basketball will be taking on SDSU tonight.

Read More

New Opportunity for Association Members

The Student Recreation Center (SRC) may be closed due to COVID-19 restrictions, however, in the new year, Alumni Association members will gain access to SRC virtual offerings for free! Some of the current SRC virtual perks include low-cost personal training programs, live drop-in-fitness classes, a virtual race series, and more. Not an Association member yet? Make sure you become a member soon and gain access to exciting new benefits coming in the new year.

Learn More

Virtual Open Houses

The VP of Student Affairs invites alumni and friends to join a free series of Virtual Open Houses for an update on CSUF student centers and scholarship programs. Attendees will hear from students, followed by an open Q&A. Upcoming presentations include the Diversity Initiatives Resource Center (Feb. 4); Abrego Future Scholars (Feb. 25) and the Male Success Initiative (Mar. 30). For more details contact Meghan Paradiso-Alva, mparadiso@fullerton.edu.

Register

View More CSUF News

Titans in the Spotlight

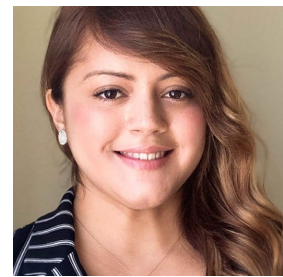

Teressa Wilcox '92, Licensed Marriage & Family Therapist, Adjunct Faculty of Psychology for Hope International University and AAMFT Approved Supervisor was selected as Top Marriage & Family Therapist of the Year by the International Association of Top Professionals for her outstanding leadership and commitment. She is distinguished based on her professional accomplishments, academic achievements, leadership abilities, affiliations and contributions to her community.

Read More

From a young age, psychology major Kristen Moreno had a dream to obtain her doctorate. That dream is now coming true. Moreno has been named a Sally Casanova Scholar by the California State University system. She is one of nine Cal State Fullerton students chosen for this pre-doctoral program that aims to increase access for underrepresented students to earn advanced degrees.

Read More

Activities and Events

Dec.

3-13

Confessions of a Star Maker

The dark underbelly of Hollywood in the 1950's is revealed through the world of Nick Ralston: a closeted, gay, talent agent in an era where it was illegal to be "out." Nick will stop at nothing to promote his clients, including revealing everyone's dirty little secrets ... before they can reveal his.

Register

Dec.

12-13

Orange Flower Water

In the small town of Pine City, Minnesota, two families are torn apart by love and betrayal as an extramarital affair draws them into a world of romantic uncertainty and disturbing moral ambiguity. This intense story documents the painful unraveling of both marriages, giving the audience an up-close and personal look at two couples falling apart, falling together, and moving on.

Register

Dec.

13

Carol Candlelight

Presented by Music Associates, this one-night virtual event will have performances by School of Music students, University Symphony Orchestra & Symphonic Chorus, University Singers, University Wind Symphony, Fullerton Jazz Orchestra, and more. Also, enjoy an appearance by CSUF President Fram Virjee and Santa Claus! This event will raise funds for Music Associates, a support group for the School of Music that provides scholarship funds for Music students annually.

Register

Dec.

17

Cooking with a Titan LIVE!

The CSUF Alumni Association is bringing you a live cooking class with CSUF's-own, Executive Chef Ubirajara "Ubi" Martins. Join in and learn how to make a delicious and healthier alternative to traditional pizza. Register for this event to gain access to the live cooking class, and you will also receive a special cooking toolkit that includes the ingredient list and some special treats. Registration closes on Dec. 14, sign up today!

Register

Feb.

15-20

SAVE THE DATE: Homecoming

More details to come in January.

View CSUF Calendar