

CSUF Alumni Association

Latest Headlines

Night Of The Pachyderm

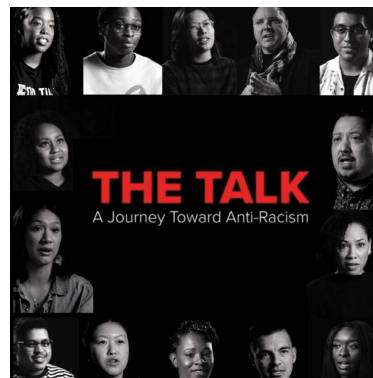

Join the Alumni Association on Friday, April 23, for our virtual Night of the Pachyderm (NOP). Gather around your computer with your friends and family for a fun interactive night filled with games, drinks, food, and laughter. Order your NOP activity kit by April 14 to guarantee its arrival by the event date. Perk alert! Alumni Association members will also receive a branded tailgating cup and a digital copy of our Cooking with a Titan Tailgate Edition Cookbook.

Learn more

The Talk: A Journey Toward Anti-Racism

“The Talk: A Journey Toward Anti-Racism” is a video series that invited campus community members to talk about their anti-racism personal journeys, concerns, and hope for a world that no longer divides by color but instead celebrates the commonality of our humanity.

Learn more

New Ways to Celebrate Commencement

Announced by Cal State Fullerton

For the latest developments in commencement activities, visit the commencement website. Based on guidance from the Office of the Governor, in collaboration with the California Department of Public Health, Cal State Fullerton announced it will be able to hold a limited, in-person, graduate-only commencement ceremony in addition to virtual ceremonies.

Learn more

Celebrate Your Grad!

Want to help celebrate the special Titan grad in your life? Graduation is a monumental moment – a proud display of academic and personal achievements. Show off your grad's accomplishment with a lawn sign for all to see! Exclusive CSUF grad lawn signs are available with a donation of $40.

Learn more

Behind the Scenes With 'Raya and the Last Dragon' Animator

CSUF alumnus Andrew Feliciano is the animation supervisor for Disney's latest fantasy adventure film "Raya and the Last Dragon." He oversaw the animation of the giant Tong and toddler Nui. Feliciano '08 (B.F.A. art-entertainment art/animation) loved drawing and Disney films from an early age. Since joining the Walt Disney Animation Studios in 2014, Feliciano has worked on animation projects like "Big Hero 6," "Moana," "Ralph Breaks the Internet," "Frozen 2" and several animated shorts.

Learn more

Assemblywoman Quirk-Silva Announces Assembly District 65 Woman of the Year, Theresa Harvey

Assemblywoman Sharon Quirk-Silva (D–Fullerton) was delighted to announce North O.C. Chamber of Commerce President and CEO, Theresa Harvey '81 as the 65th Assembly District's 2021 Woman of the Year. Serving as President and CEO since 2005, Harvey has developed core programs focused on providing resources to help businesses grow and create new jobs throughout Orange County. Under her leadership, the Chamber has prioritized issues and policies that affect local businesses.

Read Press Release

View More CSUF News

Member Benefit

Become a lifetime member

Sign up to become a lifetime member of the Alumni Association today and be entered to win a Dell work-from-home set up! Must join the CSUF Alumni Association by June 30, 2021, to be entered. To learn more and view terms and conditions click below.

Become a lifetime member

Titans in the Spotlight

Film Alumnus Helps Bring 'Good Vibrations' to 2021

When Chase Johnson '20 (B.A. cinema and television arts) first heard about the “Good Vibrations” musical project, he jumped at the chance to use his editing talents to bring a little joy to a pandemic-stricken world. Nearly 30 musicians collaborated virtually to cover the Beach Boys’ “Good Vibrations.” Johnson pieced together all the takes to create the final video which went viral and received praise from Rolling Stone, the Recording Academy (Grammys), and Beach Boy Brian Wilson.

Learn more

Business Students Take Top Honors at National Consulting Competition

CSUF MBA students are national champions again, and their undergraduate peers captured second place at the National Small Business Institute Consulting Project of the Year Competition. This year’s first-place win is No. 14 for CSUF, and Titans have finished in the Top 10 for 37 times since 1991. Through the Center for Entrepreneurship in the College of Business and Economics, students participate in the CSUF Consulting program to help local businesses solve a problem or achieve a goal.

Learn more

Activities and Events

April

THE ADJACENT POSSIBLE: AN EVOLVING COMMUNAL ORCHESTRA

Grand Central Art Center is excited to be hosting a limited series of performances of The Adjacent Possible. The Adjacent Possible is a live, online theater experience that mixes storytelling, improvisational performance, and technology to transform the audience into an orchestra. No musical experience is required.

The event is free. EACH PERFORMANCE IS LIMITED TO 20 PARTICIPANTS.

Learn more

April

6

Black Alumni Network Event

Join the Black Alumni Network as we meet Dr. Natalie Graham, department chair for CSUF's African American Studies department. She will discuss her work in areas of Black popular music, Black masculinity and identity performance, and Black poetics, as well as the founding of the CSUF Institute of Black Intellectual Innovation.

Learn more

April

12 - 15

Virtual Grad Fest 2021 Presented by Jostens

Class of 2021, make sure to plan to visit this year's virtual Grad Fest to gain insights from various entities and departments and view all of the different products that will help commemorate your achievement!

Learn more

April

14

Titan Table Talk Series: Asian Pacific Islander Heritage Month

CSUF is celebrating Asian Pacific Islander Heritage Month with the next edition of the Titan Table Talk series. This month we will be discussing civic engagement and advocacy in the Asian Pacific Islander community.

Sign up

April

15

Child & Adolescent Studies Alumni Club and the Child and Adolescent Studies Student Association Mixer

Join the Child & Adolescent Studies Alumni Club and the Child and Adolescent Studies Student Association on Zoom for a chance to connect with department faculty, students, and fellow alumni at the annual Spring Mixer. Listen to alumni panelists as they share their journey to becoming working professionals after earning their degree from the Department of Child and Adolescent Studies. Attendees will be entered into an opportunity drawing.

Learn more

April

23

Night of the Pachyderm (NOP)

Join the Alumni Association for our virtual Night of the Pachyderm (NOP). Gather around your computer with your friends and family for a fun interactive night filled with games, drinks, food, and laughter. Order your NOP activity kit by April 14 to guarantee arrival by the event date.

Learn more

View CSUF Calendar

CSUF Alumni Association | View as Webpage

Privacy Policy | Email Preferences | Update My Info

