Inclusive Champions Certificate Program

The Inclusive Champions Certificate Program is available to members of our Titan community, including alumni!

Consider becoming a "Champion of Inclusion;" learn through workshops and experiences offered by CSUF revolving around diversity, equity, and inclusion issues. To become an inclusive champion, individuals must complete three core courses, five elective courses, attend two unique engagement programs, and submit a written reflection, all self-paced.

The Pantry

Addressing food insecurity among college students has been a CSU system-wide effort. The permanent location of the CSUF ASI food pantry in the Titan Student Union was dedicated at a ceremony in October featuring OC Supervisor and alumna Lisa Bartlett. The pantry will distribute food and support students facing food insecurity.

A Tale of Two Olympic Victories

Olympian Kaleigh Gilchrist made headlines at the Tokyo Games for her gold medal win as part of the USA Water Polo team. But it was her thank you letter to Larnie Boquiren '04, sports medicine manager for the USA Water Polo Women's National Team, that ignited Titan Pride. For Jimmy Stitz '13, sports physiologist for the USA Volleyball Women's National Team, Tokyo 2020 was his last chance to be a part of a gold medal-winning Olympic team. After a yearlong postponement of the Tokyo Games, the USA Volleyball women's team made history with its first-ever Olympic gold medal over Brazil.
