YOUR ITINERARY

DAY 1~SUNDAY~OCTOBER 8 LOS ANGELES/DALLAS/QUITO

Your journey begins as you board your American Airlines flight. Upon arrival in the evening, you will be escorted to your elegant hotel which is located in the heart of historic "Quito Antigo" and surrounded by churches, museums and national monuments. An official National Treasure, Patio Andaluz holds centuries of history within its walls and is a marvelous building of Colonial origin, which offers every visitor an experience not unlike turning back in time. It was part of the original Solaris (original building sites) that constituted the City of San Francisco of Quito at the time it was founded. Enjoy the enchantment and comfort that this elegant boutique hotel offers, with large arches, balconies, and towering attics that gives the feeling of being in the republican era. The inviting guestrooms have hard wood floors, vaulted ceilings, original works of art and fresh picked flowers and feature colonial style headboards, armoires, Latin work desks with antique lamps, color televisions and large windows. Hotel amenities include a coffee shop, full gourmet restaurant, a Tapas wine bar, spa, gym and solarium.

Overnight at the HOTEL PATIO ANDALUZ. (Meals Aloft) www.hotelpatioandaluz.com

DAY 2~MONDAY~OCTOBER 9 QUITO~COLONIAL CITY

Your morning is at leisure. This afternoon embark on a tour of Quito's colonial quarter, the largest and best preserved of South America. With over 400 years of history and a strong Spanish heritage, you will see sublime colonial flavor in the architectural masterpieces such as private buildings and mansions, the cloisters and churches, museums and public buildings. The stroll starts at the Independence Plaza, flanked by the Cathedral, the Presidential Palace, the Municipal Palace and the Archbishop's Palace. Visit the temple of La Compañía de Jesús and its awesome gilded interior. Continue on to the Monastery of San Francisco, one of the great religious buildings of the New World, with its impressive façade and atrium that lead to its Baroque interior influenced by Moorish style, with the winged Virgin of Quito at its main altar. Visit Academia Latinoamericana before you return to your hotel where the rest of the day is at leisure to further explore the city and shop.

Overnight at the HOTEL PATIO ANDALUZ. (B)

DAY 3~TUESDAY~OCTOBER 10

QUITO/OTAVALO

Early this morning you will depart for South America's most famous Indian fair, the Otavalo Market, centered around 'Poncho Plaza'. The best day of the week to hit this famous and friendly corner of the Andes is Saturday – the biggest market day for visitors and locals alike, but a mini market is offered daily. All day long, the sounds of Andean pipe music, and Quechua, the native tongue derived from the Incan language, drift across the square. As you stroll the streets you'll find everything from sweaters to wall hangings to ceramic fried eggs, fresh produce to intricate jewelry. "Market Day" has been an essential part of the Ecuadorian life for centuries. The Indian's economic life relies very heavily on this tradition, and this is where they can exchange gossip and learn of important events.

After your visit to the Otavalo Market you will enjoy an authentic Andean lunch at a local restaurant, followed by a stopover in Cotacachi – the center of Ecuador's leather industry and the best place to purchase inexpensive leather goods. You will return to Quito late in the afternoon, where the remainder of the evening is at your leisure. Overnight at the HOTEL PATIO ANDALUZ. (B,L)

DAY 4~WEDNESDAY~OCTOBER 11

QUITO/GALAPAGOS ISLANDS: SAN CRISTOBAL ISLAND~CERRO COLORADO

In the morning you will be escorted at the airport for your flight to the Galapagos Islands, where you will meet up by your naturalist guide and take a short bus ride to the pier to board the vessel, the M/Y Coral II. On land and in the sea, the Galapagos Islands give the impression of a diabolic Garden of Eden. The islands' tumultuous volcanic history of scorched earth and fiery flows are evident the moment you arrive. Inhospitable. Uninhabitable. Tortured. These are the adjectives inspired by the lava-seascape. But look closer... this seemingly Spartan landscape is in fact teeming with life – the first of the Galapagos' many contradictions. Suddenly you realize that what you thought was a rock is in fact a sun-seeking iguana! And to add to your surprise, it doesn't seem the least bit perturbed by your intrusive gaze... another Galapagos contradiction. Due to their long history of isolation from humans, both land and sea animals remain virtually fearless and unaffected by visitors. This is the land that Charles Darwin visited as a naturalist on board the HMS Beagle, which was bound on a long scientific survey expedition to South America and the South Seas (1831-36). His zoological and geological discoveries on the voyage resulted in numerous important publications, and formed the basis of his theories on evolution.

For the next five days, you will bear witness to our planet's most captivating wildlife; for example, their namesake, the 600-pound tortoises, which in the Spanish language, are called Galapagos. You'll be mesmerized by the awe-inspiring landscapes and misty volcanic peaks. The underwater world is equally enchanting. The Motor Yacht Coral II is decorated with teakwood and has a modern design. Its eleven spacious cabins are decorated with a marine motif and all have private facilities. The dining room is artfully decorated and the sun decks of the yacht also provide a lot of places with shade. The outdoor deck of the Coral II is perfect for picture taking or to enjoy the sun. After the expert naturalists share their knowledge of the area, you will no longer be able to view your trip as a mere visit, but as a cherished experience.

This afternoon after the welcome briefing and safety drill, a delicious buffet lunch is served. Afterwards travel by bus to the highlands to visit Centro de Crianza Jacinto Gordillo (La Galapaguera Cerro Colorado) where the National Park has established a breeding program for the giant land tortoises that you will encounter in their natural habitat. Learn about their origin, evolution and threats by introduced animals at the information center for visitors. Along the trail, you will find the San Cristobal (Chatham) mockingbird and Calandrinia plant, both endemic to this island. Join your fellow yacht mates this evening for your first briefing followed by our Captain's welcome cocktail party and dinner prepared by our well-trained chefs.

Overnight aboard the M/Y CORAL I or II. (B,L,D)

DAY 5~THURSDAY~OCTOBER 12

GALAPAGOS ISLANDS: SAN CRISTOBAL ISLAND~CERRO BRUJO & PUNTA PITT

A dinghy ride along the shores of tuff-stone layers will bring you to Cerro Brujo's white coralline beach (wet landing) where you should be able to spot seabirds like Blue-footed Boobies, Nazca Boobies, herons, and some shore birds. Also, look for Galapagos sea lions. Highlights ashore include the Chatham (San Cristobal) Mockingbird, Chatham lava lizard; both species are endemic to this island and seen nowhere else in Galapagos. You may also spot Yellow Warblers, Galapagos Flycatchers, and with luck, a Vermillion Flycatcher (endemic subspecies to San Cristobal).

Disembark (wet landing) on the eastern tip of the island and visit Pitt Point (Punta Pitt). Here there are endemic species such as lava lizards and red-footed boobies. The view is impressive when you walk up to the high part of the island. You may be lucky to see the Red-footed Booby – the least seen of the bunch. It's also the home of the Chatham Mockingbird, only found here on San Cristobal Island.

Overnight aboard the M/Y CORAL I or II. (B,L,D)

DAY 6~FRIDAY~OCTOBER 13

GALAPAGOS ISLANDS: MOSQUERA ISLET & BARTOLOME ISLAND

After breakfast disembark at Mosquera (wet landing), a tiny islet between Baltra and North Seymour with a long narrow beach and large population of sea lions. Created by geological uplift, the island is flat rather than the conical shape of the volcanic islands. There is no trail on the island so after your wet landing; you will have the opportunity to enjoy the open area. Most of the islet is covered with sand and barren lava rock. Very little sesuvium portulacastrum grows on the sand. It is also an excellent site for observing shorebirds such as herons and Lava Gulls.

After lunch visit Bartolome (dry landing), a small rugged island off the eastern shore of Santiago where it seems like you are walking on the moon. This young island is inhospitable to most plants and animals. Embark on a 30-minute climb to a summit of a once-active volcano for a panoramic view which includes the guardian point of Pinnacle Rock, the worn-away remnant of a cone composed of spewed ashy particles. This is a steep climb aided by a wooden staircase but the view from the top is worth the effort. Down below, the water is crystal clear, and you can swim and snorkel with schools of fish after your hike. On the other side, you will find sea turtles and white-tipped sharks close to the shore. You will have time to enjoy snorkeling and swimming from the beach with the endemic Galapagos penguins that frequent this cove. Overnight aboard the M/Y CORAL I or II. (B,L,D)

DAY 7~SATURDAY~OCTOBER 14

GALAPAGOS ISLANDS: RABIDA ISLAND & CHINESE HAT

Disembark at Rabida Island (wet landing) on a red-colored beach, due to the unusually high content of iron in the volcanic material. A gratifying stroll along the beach of this small island allows the observation of a large colony of sea lions, marine iguanas, mockingbirds, Yellow Warblers and several species of Darwin's Finches. Very close to the beach, hidden behind a strip of green saltbush, is a salt pond where at times Greater Flamingos migrate to; these spectacular birds feed on the brine shrimp found in this saline pond. From June to November pelicans nest in the surroundings. This is a great place to snorkel from the beach, both for beginners as well as for experienced snorkelers, due to the unique combination of underwater species and submarine landscapes. During navigation to your next destination, keep your eyes open for dolphins.

Located off the Southern tip of Santiago, Sombrero Chino or Chinese Hat owes its name to its shape. After a wet beach landing with sea lion colonies, the trail gives way to a primeval landscape of volcanic rubble including cracked lava formations and lava tubes. The lava tubes are fragile and one must be careful to stay on the trail. See marine iguanas and pairs of oystercatchers and have some superb opportunities for picture taking. Overnight aboard the M/Y CORAL I or II. (B,L,D)

DAY 8~SUNDAY~OCTOBER 15

GALAPAGOS ISLANDS: SANTA CRUZ ISLAND~HIGHLANDS/BALTRA AIRPORT

Drop anchor at Puerto Ayora (dry landing) this morning and travel by bus to Cerro Chato Reserve, one of the best places in the archipelago to see giant tortoises in their natural habitat. The tortoises are easy to spot, lumbering around, eating grass and leaves and wallowing in the small pools that are common in the reserve. You may also spot some highland birds, like cattle egrets, mockingbirds, finches or flycatchers. There are several lava tunnels in the reserve, a great place to spot the barn owl. There is also a small lagoon covered in red algae where gallinules and Galápagos Pintails can be found. Return to Puerto Ayora and transfer to the airport for your flight to Guayaquil. Your farewell dinner will be at a local restaurant. Later this evening you will be transferred to the airport for your return flights home. (B,D)

DAY 9~MONDAY~OCTOBER 16

MIAMI/LOS ANGELES

The hotel has an outdoor swimming pool, sauna, jacuzzi, a restaurant offering national and international cuisine, and an elegant terrace.

Overnight at the ATTON SAN ISIDRO HOTEL. (B) www.sanisidro.atton.com/

DAY 9~MONDAY~OCTOBER 16

LIMA

This morning, discover Lima, Peru's ancient capital, on a guided tour. Visit the cathedral and then continue to the San Francisco Monastery, an old convent founded in the 16th century. It is known for its cloister, featuring mosaic tiles from Seville, Spain, and for its catacombs, which served as Lima's cemetery through the colonial period.

Your next stop is the Larco Herrera Museum founded in 1926. The museum possesses more than 45,000 pre-Columbian pieces and provides an incomparable opportunity to discover the mysteries of the pre-Inca world. The permanent exhibition contains thousands of priceless objects, including gold and jewelry, ceramic statuary and sculptures, metals, textiles, and a display of erotic representations of the ancient world.

The afternoon and evening are at leisure. Your hotel is located in the heart of the traditional Miraflores district, just two blocks from Parque Kennedy and surrounded by Lima's finest dining and shopping. Peruvian cuisine is delightful and Lima has many fine restaurants. Enjoy a traditional Peruvian lunch at La Huaca Pucllana restaurant located in one of the pre-Columbian temples in this 6-hectare archaeological site. This temple was built in 400 A.D. and is located in the nearby suburb of Miraflores. As far back as 3,000 years ago this area was an important religious and administrative center of the Lima culture. Today have lunch at Restaurante La Huaca Pucllana, which is a warm and cozy restaurant with a spectacular view of the illuminated surrounding ruins.

Overnight at the ATTON SAN ISIDRO HOTEL. (B,L)

DAY 10~TUESDAY~OCTOBER 17

LIMA/CUSCO/URUBAMBA VALLEY~ PISAC MARKET

You will begin your day with a flight to Cusco, where upon arrival you'll board a bus to Yucay, which is located in the heart of the Urubamba Valley, the sacred valley of the Incas.

Your visit will be to the town of Pisac. A vital Inca road once snaked its way up the canyon that enters the Urubamba Valley at Pisac. The citadel, at the entrance to this gorge, now in ruins, controlled a route which connected the Inca Empire with Paucartambo, on the border of the eastern jungles. Set high above a valley floor patch worked by patterned fields and rimmed by vast terracing, the stonework and panoramas at Pisac's Inca citadel are magnificent. Terraces, water ducts and steps have been cut out of solid rock, and in the upper sector of the ruins, the main Sun Temple is equal to anything at Machu Picchu. Above the temple lie still more ruins, mostly unexcavated, and among the higher crevices and rocky overhangs several ancient burial sites are hidden. Pisac also offers a very colorful "Market Day" every Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday. Similar to Otavalo's market, you can purchase handcrafted jewelry, leather, beautiful woolens, ponchos, carpets, and alpaca products.

Your hotel is located on seven acres in the heart of the Sacred Valley of the Incas, just six miles from Ollantaytambo train station. The hotel is closer to Machu Picchu than Cusco City, as well as from the most important archaeological sites, such as Ollantaytambo, Pisac, Chincheros, Moray, Maras, and more. Casa Andina Hotel at Urubamba is surrounded by gardens and has 85 fully equipped guest rooms that open to balconies. Guest rooms provide complimentary wireless Internet access, direct-dial phones, and in-room safes. The hotel has a full-service spa, steam room, sauna, and fitness facility.

Overnight at CASA ANDINA PRIVATE COLLECTION URUBAMBA. (B,L)

DAY 11~WEDNESDAY~OCTOBER 18

URUBAMBA VALLEY~OLLANTAYTAMBO

Explore Ollantaytambo this morning, a major Inca fortress and one of the few places where the Spaniards lost a major battle during the conquest. Ollantaytambo is a massive citadel which served as both a temple and a fortress. The temple area is at the top of the terracing. The stone used for these buildings was quarried from the mountainside three miles away and high above the opposite bank of the Rio Urubamba – transporting the blocks from the quarry to the site was a stupendous feat, and as of yet no one has been able to establish how it was accomplished.

Your afternoon is at leisure to enjoy the fabulous facilities of your hotel or sightsee on your own.

Overnight at CASA ANDINA PRIVATE COLLECTION URUBAMBA. (B,L)

DAY 12~THURSDAY~OCTOBER 19

MACHU PICCHU

Today you depart on one of South America's most scenic rail trips from Ollanta Station to the legendary "Lost City of the Incas," Machu Picchu. Your one and a half hour rail journey is filled with breathtaking sights, en route to this mountain-top sanctuary of the Incas (which was hidden from the world until 1911 when Yale archaeologist Hiram Bingham rediscovered it.) Machu Picchu straddles a high ridge, with sheer cliffs on three sides, and the Urubamba River below curves around it and fills the canyon with its roar. In all directions, there are the Andean peaks covered in jungle green, a spectacular setting for these ancient ruins. There are temples, houses, terraces for growing crops that could be functional today, and even gardens and a sacrificial altar. No one knows what happened to this civilization and why this city mysteriously disappeared, adding to the allure and spirituality of this incredible World Heritage Site.

No one knows what happened to this civilization and why this city mysteriously disappeared, adding to the allure and spirituality of this incredible World Heritage Site.

Once you step through the door of your home for the night, you will feel the magic of this place. The train station is only steps away, but your intimate 85-cottage hotel is a world apart. The hotel, surrounded by 12 secluded acres of exquisite beauty, combines a reverence for nature with a commitment to indulging your every whim.

Be sure to explore the orchid trail on the hotel grounds which is within a spectacular cloud forest and is considered to be a genetic bank because of its wealth of biodiversity. It is the world's largest native species orchid garden, with 372 species of native orchids. In addition, 154 bird species, 108 butterfly species, more than 200 species of trees, and a great variety of reptiles and mammals, including two spectacled bears, have been seen.

The hotel offers activities that promote contact with nature and the local culture and implements projects for researching and conserving the local flora and fauna in cooperation with prestigious international institutions. Your superior room is the perfect sanctuary for simple relaxation with luxurious bedding and an inviting dining area. Decorated with local crafts and eucalyptus beams, your room includes a room heater, a colonial style wardrobe, Andean slippers crafted from recycled materials, plus a complete set of environmentally friendly toiletries, all provided for your personal comfort.

DAY 13~FRIDAY~OCTOBER 20

MACHU PICCHU / CUSCO

You will have the morning free to return to Machu Picchu (optional at an additional fee) and continue exploring the city, or enjoy some of the in-house activities of Inkaterra Hotel (optional at an additional fee). As you will enter the citadel early, there will be wonderful opportunities to take photographs. In the afternoon, you will be returning to Cusco via rail, which takes approximately three and a half hours. Upon check-in at your hotel, the evening is at leisure.

You will be staying at the charming Aranwa Cusco Boutique hotel; a converted colonial mansion located only a short walk from Cusco's cathedral, near the airport, and 15 minutes' drive to the most-visited archaeological sites in the city including Sacsayhuamán, Quenko, Puca Pucará, and Tambomachay. The hotel's 43 rooms and suites are decorated in the traditional style of a 16th century mansion. The marble-floored bathrooms have large Jacuzzi-style baths, a Scottish shower, and heated floors to keep you warm on the cold Andean nights. All guestrooms and suites are equipped with intelligent oxygen systems that reduce the sense of altitude and prevent altitude sickness syndrome. The multicultural Mishti restaurant is serving a delicious combination of Peruvian and Andean cuisine with a modern twist. You may also enjoy Andean-style tapas in addition to both national and international cuisine at the hotel's chic Khasikay Bar.

Overnight at the ARANWA CUSCO BOUTIQUE HOTEL. (B,L)

DAY 14~SATURDAY~OCTOBER 21

CUSCO

This morning you will enjoy a guided tour of Cusco. Visit the impressive colonial cathedral that contains over 400 paintings from the Cusqueña School, beautiful cedar wood carvings such as the choir and the pulpit, as well as some objects made of silver. Continue to Koricancha (Sun Temple), known today as Santo Domingo Church. During the Inca period, the stones of this temple were covered with gold.

Your city tour ends with a visit to the gigantic Inca fortress of Sacsayhuamán. The Incas told the Spaniards that they weren't the ones who built Sacsayhuamán, but "the giants" built it. In their mythology there were huge people living in the Cuzco area, and they carried the huge stone blocks and put them together. The city of Cuzco was built in the shape of a puma, a holy animal in the Inca beliefs. The head of the puma was actually Sacsayhuamán, a massive fortress of the Incas capable of accommodating 5,000 fighters. Today the complex is in ruins, but we know from chronicles and word-of-mouth from local Quechuans that it was once bigger, higher, and had towers. Your afternoon is at leisure.

Overnight at the ARANWA CUSCO BOUTIQUE HOTEL. (B)

DAY 15~SUNDAY~OCTOBER 22

CUSCO/LIMA/EN ROUTE

Your flight this morning returns you to Lima where the rest of your day is at leisure. A day room is reserved to you at the Atton Hotel to relax before your evening flight back home. Later tonight, transfer to the airport for your overnight flight to Los Angeles. (B)

THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT ECUADOR, THE GALAPAGOS & PERU

Mainland Ecuador

- Quito is located at an altitude of close to 9,000 feet and may present acclimatization problems for individuals. Many of the visits to volcanoes and the countryside are also at higher altitudes.
- Guayaquil is at sea level but has a high degree of humidity. To enjoy this destination to its fullest, travelers must be in good physical condition and consult with a medical professional should there be any respiratory ailments.

Galapagos

- Participants must be able to climb in and out of vehicles and boats/pangas unassisted. Bear in mind that some landings are wet, and others are dry, so you need to be able to get in and out of the boats easily enough and proper footwear is essential.
- You should also be able to tolerate nature walks at an easy pace on uneven terrain, sometimes uphill, for three or four hours at a time in heat and humidity. The islands are volcanic and the ground in many cases is jagged and uneven. You should have good stability as falling can cause injury.
- To enjoy this destination to its fullest, travelers must be in good physical health.

Peru

- Your visit includes considerable walking/hiking at high altitudes (over 9,000 feet at Machu Picchu and 11,150 feet in Cusco). These walks are uphill, and on uneven ground, at various sites and ancient ruins. You must be in excellent physical health to enjoy this destination to its fullest. These conditions and altitudes may pose problems to participants with particular physical issues and you should always consult your personal physician before embarking on such an adventure.

General

- True adventure in travel can sometimes be accompanied by unexpected changes in conditions, itineraries and occasionally your accommodations. Participants should travel with a spirit of adventure and flexibility. Remember to pack your patience and sense of humor! Be willing to look past self-imposed ideals of Western amenities and do not compare these new experiences with your life back home.
- Travel often includes visiting destinations with modest infrastructures and a bending definition of comfort. That being said, some locations are nestled in absolute luxury where pampering is the norm.
- Participants should generally be in good health and prepared to travel in locations without medical facilities.

Air Schedules

Choosing the best possible air arrangements for our travelers is always a challenge. We work with many airlines that offer the best level of service, routings and value for our programs. While there may indeed be more direct routings available with another airline, the cost of these flights may not be within the budget that allows us to give you the best value possible. If you prefer to purchase your own international air, please feel free to choose the "land only" rate for this program. The start city is Quito and finish city is Guayaquil for the main program. The extension returns from Lima, Peru.

Upon registration, you must provide your full legal name as it appears on your passport. In the event an airline ticket is issued with incorrect information you have provided, you will be responsible for charges associated with reissuing the ticket.

CONDITIONS OF TRAVEL:

REGISTRATION

HOW TO BOOK: Fill out and sign the enclosed reservation form and send it, along with the relevant deposit as shown below, to: CLASSIC ESCAPES, 58-25 Queens Blvd., Woodside, NY 11377. Upon receipt of your signed reservation form and deposit, we will, subject to availability, reserve your spot on the tour. You may consider your booking confirmed when you receive a confirmation notice and invoice from us.

PAYMENTS

DEPOSIT: A deposit of $750 per person for the main trip and $250 for the extension must be submitted at the time of booking. Deposits may be paid by check or charged to American Express, MasterCard, Visa or Discover.

FINAL PAYMENT: Final payment is due 95 days before departure (July 5, 2017) - you will receive a final invoice. Final payment is payable by check or money order ONLY.

RATES: Rates are based on the minimum number of guests outlined in this document, plus airfare costs, currency exchange rates and other factors and are subject to change. Though it is rare for Classic Escapes to make a price adjustment after promotion of an itinerary, we do reserve the right to assess a surcharge if the minimum is not met, or if increases are forced upon us by airlines or other partners or because of changes in currency exchange rates.

NOT INCLUDED: Cost of passport and visa fees, and service charges for obtaining visa fees; excess baggage charges levied by airlines; laundry and other items of a personal nature; optional travel insurance policy; cost for anything not specifically included in listing above.

SINGLE SUPPLEMENT: The quoted rate is valid for the first two single rooms booked and on a first-come, first-served basis. If more than two single rooms are needed, an additional supplement may apply. Single accommodations are not guaranteed, but will be provided at additional cost if available (see reservation form for cost.) The single room supplement pays for privacy, not better accommodations. For passengers who are traveling alone and wish to share a room with another tour member, we will do our best to provide a roommate. However, if this is not possible, you will be required to pay the single room supplement prior to your departure from the USA.

GRATUITIES AND TAXES: Gratuities for baggage handling, service charges and taxes imposed by hotels, and entrance fees to all points of interest as outlined in the itinerary are included. U.S. and foreign airport taxes are included in air costs. Tips to drivers and naturalist are NOT included.

CANCELLATIONS, DEVIATIONS & CHANGES

TRAVEL INSURANCE: We recommend travel insurance. Travel insurance can provide financial reimbursement should the unexpected occur.

CANCELLATION POLICY: Cancellations are only effective on receipt of written notification. The following per person fees are applicable on this tour:

- Up to July 5, 2017, $300 handling fee.
- July 6 to August 9, 2017, deposit is forfeited.
- August 10 to 24, 2017, less 50% of tour cost.
- After August 24, 2017, no refund is possible.

CHANGE FEES: Once you reserve your tour, changes are possible at a fee of $150 per person subject to availability of air or land space at the time of request. Should there be any change fees imposed by airlines or ground operators, or additional costs incurred due to availability of any space, this cost will be invoiced to you.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS: We would be happy to make additional travel plans for you, including specially arranged pre- or post-tour extensions different than those that may be offered in conjunction with this tour. A service charge of $150 per person (over and above the cost of the services required) will be assessed.

DOCUMENTS

PASSPORT & VISAS: The onus is upon the guest to ensure that passports and visas are valid for the countries visited and for the applicable time period, as outlined by the U.S. Department of State (travel.state.gov) or by the passport holder's country. Classic Escapes, their staff and their agents cannot be held liable for any visas, etc. not held by the guests, nor for the cost of obtaining visas.

PRE-DEPARTURE INFORMATION: Upon receipt of your registration and deposit, we will send a pre-departure packet to you. This packet contains all the information you need to prepare for your tour, including the complete itinerary, packing checklist, required documents, etc.

FINAL DOCUMENTS: Final documents and tickets will be sent to you approximately two weeks prior to departure, provided all monies have been paid in full.

TRANSPORTATION

AIR TRANSPORTATION: Roundtrip, economy-class flights via AMERICAN AIRLINES and/or other IATAN carriers are between LOS ANGELES and the destination city noted in the itinerary. Rates are based on special promotional fares; cancellation fees apply once tickets are issued. Departures from other cities in the USA are possible at additional cost; inquire at the time of reservation. Please note that these promotional fares are subject to 10 passengers traveling together on the same airline routing and itinerary. If this minimum is not met, the special group rates are not applicable and it might become necessary to issue instant purchase tickets earlier than when final payment is due in order to take advantage of airfares that are similar to the group rates. Should this occur, you will be contacted with the details.

AIRLINE SEATING: For AMERICAN AIRLINES, we request seats together for the group. All planes are non-smoking. We can request a seating preference on your behalf, however requested seats cannot be guaranteed. Requests should be made in writing no later than 60 days prior to departure. Bulkhead and/or emergency row seats can only be requested at airport check-in on the day of departure. Boarding passes will only be issued at the airport on the day of departure. You may inquire about seat changes during check in, based on availability and is at the sole discretion of airport staff.

FREQUENT FLYER MILEAGE: As mentioned, we work primarily with AMERICAN AIRLINES. For a list of the airline's partners, visit <https://www.aa.com/advantage>. You may obtain frequent flyer mileage on any of these carriers. Present your frequent flyer card for all flight check-ins and keep the boarding passes until you receive a statement with the mileage credit

TRANSFERS: Roundtrip airport transfers are included in the tour for guests arriving on group flights.

TRIP DETAILS

ACCOMMODATIONS: You will marvel at the wonderful accommodations provided throughout your tour. All rooms have private bathroom facilities and air conditioning and/or fans. All rates are based on double occupancy. Most rooms are twin-bedded, but king-size beds are occasionally available and should be requested in advance. Accommodations listed in this itinerary are correct at time of writing, but on rare occasions may be substituted for a different property of comparable quality.

MEALS: All meals as specified in the itinerary. Please notify us if you have special dietary needs or requests, and we will do our best to accommodate.

INOCULATIONS: When it comes to vaccination and disease prevention, we suggest that travelers first review information provided by the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (www.cdc.gov/travel) and then review those details with their personal physicians.

WATER: It is always advisable to drink bottled and/or filtered water when traveling overseas. Safe drinking water will be provided to travelers free of charge in the vehicles and during meals.

BAGGAGE: On average, international flights from the USA allow one piece of checked luggage, each not exceeding 50 pounds; however we always recommend that you check your airline's policy just before departure, as luggage limitations are always subject to change. Despite this weight allowance, we always suggest guests travel light. Also soft-sided duffel bags are ideal for this tour, as they stow best in vehicles, cabins and airplanes with limited space.

This insurance should include cover in respect of, but not limited to, the following eventualities: cancellation or curtailment of the program, emergency evacuation expenses, medical expenses, repatriation expenses, damage/theft/loss of personal baggage, money and goods. Classic Escapes, including their representatives, employees and agents will take no responsibility for any costs, losses incurred or suffered by the guest, or guest's dependents or traveling companions, with regards to, but not limited to, any of the above mentioned eventualities. Guests will be charged directly by the relevant service providers for any emergency services they may require, and may find themselves in a position unable to access such services should they not be carrying the relevant insurance cover.
